

IRYNA WOOD

CREATOR & CO-FOUNDER OF GEMININEARME®

I am the founder of the Gemini Near Me®, an Emotional Intelligence app, a media host, and an author in the field of emotional intelligence. Born in Ukraine and fluent in five languages, I bring more than thirteen years of global counseling and mentorship experience, helping individuals and couples build self-trust, emotional clarity, and healthier relationship patterns.

My work centers on emotional intelligence and self-reflection through a question-led approach that blends spiritual insight with practical tools for everyday life. I also host the Stars About Stars® podcast and create short-form street interviews, inspired by my self-reflection card deck, What Everybody Wants to Know — all with the goal of helping people move away from external validation and build a stronger relationship with themselves.

WHY I ADVOCATE FOR EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE

Emotional Intelligence (EI), or Emotional Quotient (EQ), is the ability to understand, manage, and effectively use emotions — our own and those of others. It influences how we make decisions, build relationships, overcome challenges, communicate, and grow both personally and professionally.

MY PROFESSIONAL VISION:

Emotions shape our relationships, decisions, and well-being. Without understanding the roots of our emotions, we often repeat unhealthy patterns and limiting behaviors.

My mission is to help people develop self-trust and emotional clarity. Self-love begins with self-understanding and self-acceptance, both rooted in self-discovery.

Everything I create is grounded in emotional intelligence — from one-on-one counseling and the Stars About Stars® podcast to my book Who Cares About Your Ex, What Everybody Wants to Know card deck, and the Gemini Near Me® app, powered by Iryna EI, a 24/7 conversational, pocket counselor designed to support self-reflection, emotional growth, and personal empowerment.

MY CORE PHILOSOPHY: I believe that true transformation begins with the relationship we have with ourselves. I believe self-love—rooted in deep self-understanding and acceptance—is the foundation for healthy relationships and lasting confidence.
